SINNER DC

SINNER DC have been forging an increasingly solid reputation for impeccable tunes and sweeping electronic sounds for themselves over the years. The live trio from Geneva whose sound is as captivating as it is unique merges a combination of electronic investigations and terraforming sounds, which will stop for nothing. The minimal vocals, captured sound waves and clever programming all pull together to create another doorstep slice of goodness that Ai Records are getting renowned for.

SINNER DC have performed more than a hundred times as live act or dj set all over Europe with Plaid, Vitalic, Sigur Ros, M83, Spectrum, Margaret Dygas, Mathias Aguayo, Black Dice, ... and also collaborated with artists such as Sonic Boom, Christian Marclay, Water Lilly, Rone, Repeat Repeat, Alexia Turlin, Geoff McFetridge, Parra, Neil Krug, ...

On stage, digital videos by Alexia Turlin & SINNER DC support a live show with drumming, real-time sampling, distant voices, toy organ, mand slide guitar & bass...

SOUNDS LIKE:

THE LONDON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA BEING PUT THROUGH AN ELECTRONIC MANGLE THEN TAKEN TO A BERLIN STUDIO TO BE HUNG OUT TO DRY.

EVERYTHING IS CHEMICAL: "SINNER DC has been massaging my ear muscles with their soothing brand of laid back electronica since 2005's "Arkle Parkle Avenue". As far as music representing "a distant, but not too far, future" SINNER DC takes the cake.

SINNER DC have outdone themselves yet again. The production values on "Crystallized" are beyond anything you could ever imagine for any electronic band out there today. Its, deep, spacey, and drenching in emotional electric intelligence... Generally I would compare SINNER DC to Home Video meets Underworld, on this one I would change that to "M83 meets Depeche Mode". Society, in general, can't really lose too many more points from me. But if it (society) doesn't take on to the fact of how amazing SINNER DC (ridiculously overlooked paragon) is, they will indeed, lose more.

My main complaint with this album is that it ends...

Overall though, if you're a fan of SINNER DC you will no-doubt be happy with this release. And here's my campaign for those of you that haven't graced your souls with SINNER DC; Buy the album, don't like it? ...I'll buy it from you.

I feel comfortable saying this album could, and should be, for everybody. A sure candidate for best music of 2009. SINNER DC are imaginative futurists willing to take you on a sensual ride through space, and time. Put your headphones on, there's a rave in space, you're invited...and it's going to be a good trip."

RESIDENT ADVISOR: "Post-rave emotionally intense brilliance... the effect is enchanting..."

TEXTURA: "The trio has honed the album's material to near-perfection."

ROUGH TRADE: "Outstanding new album from SINNER DC."

NICK LUSCOMBE: "... I love it."

PATRICE BAUMEL: "Great album! One of the discoveries of 2009."

JUNO RECORDS: "SINNER DC in top 10 favourite djs"

SOUND REVOLT: "This album causes a sheer emotional tsunami."

COKE MACHINE GLOW: "Moments that brush perfection"

NORMAN RECORDS: "Bustingly vibrant"

PICCADILLY RECORDS: "Perfectly balanced composition that will delight your senses and leave you hungry for more."

HALF STEREO: "One of the best albums in the Ai discography and the most valuable album of SINNER DC so far."

UP FRONT LINE: "Captivating electronic sounds which are produced with a distinct human touch."

DREAM CHIMNEY: "Got hiped to this swiss trio the other day, feeling the blissed vibes."

CYCLIC DEFROST: "Reaching for both euphoria and intimacy... achieved with such apparent effortlessness."

REPEAT REPEAT: "It's a thing of great beauty! I love all the tracks."

DE:BUG: "Ein grosser Sprung."

THE MILK FACTORY: "SINNER DC have produced a highly sophisticated and elegant record."
